

Advertisement:

As a result of additional beds opening in the Ellerslie Transition Care Unit, a General Practitioner is required to join our existing team of three General Practitioners supported by a sessional Geriatrician.

Ellerslie runs a transitional care model (an Australian Government initiative utilizing an MBS funding model)

The General Practitioner is required to be medically responsible for 8-10 beds and share in the weekend on call.

Required Education, Training, Knowledge And Experience

1. Excellent skills and competencies as a clinician and excellent communication skills with patients, their families and one's colleagues.
2. Commitment to the values of the Sisters of Charity being, Compassion, Justice, Human dignity, Excellence, Unity and commitment to the Hospital's Code of Ethical Conduct.
3. Registration with the Medical Practitioners Board of Australia including participation in an approved CME program
4. Indemnification with a recognised / approved Medical Defence Association
5. Vocational Registration

Selection Procedures:

Candidates are selected and ranked on the basis of their written applications, referee reports, personal interview and work history.

Interviews:

Personal interviews will be conducted with shortlisted candidates.

A Victorian Police check is required for the position

Enquiries regarding the service should be directed to:

Dr Lawrence O'Halloran 9288 2022 or

A/Prof Michael Murray michael.murray@svhm.org.au

Applications:

A/Prof Michael Murray, Director of Geriatric Medicine St Vincent's
michael.murray@svhm.org.au