- (a) Where a dispute is referred for conciliation, the Commission member will do everything the member deems right and proper to assist the parties to settle the dispute.
- (b) Conciliation before the Commission is complete when:

- (e) For the purpose of this subclause, the allowable period of absence means in respect of any period of absence from employment between engagement with one Employer and another or re-engagement with the same Employer that does not exceed five weeks in addition to the total period of annual leave, long service leave and or personal leave which the Employee actually receives on termination or for which he or she is paid in lieu.

- (c) The casual Employee is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance.

 - (A) the birth of a Child (including a Stillbirth) of the Eligible Employee or the Eligible Employee's Spouse; or
 - (B) the placement of a Child with the Eligible Employee for adoption; and
 - (ii) the Eligible Employee is the Primary Carer, or in the case of a Stillbirth, the Eligible Employee would have been the Primary Carer if the Child had been born alive.
- (b) Except as provided at subclause 59.3(g) (Flexible Long Parental Leave) and subclause 59.18 (Keeping in Touch Days), the Eligible Employee must take the leave in a single continuous period.
- (c) Where an Eligible Employee is a member of an Employee Couple, except as provided at subclauses 59.3(g) (Flexible Long Parental Leave) and 59.4 (Short Parental Leave – Unpaid), parental leave must be taken by only one parent of an Employee Couple at a time in a single continuous period.

- (g) Flexible Long Parental Leave
 - (i) An Eligible Employee may take up to 30 days of their Long Parental Leave entitlement (Flexible Long Parental Leave) during the 24-month period starting on the date of birth (including a Stillbirth) or day of placement of the Child if the requirements of this sub-clause are satisfied in relation to the leave.

- (ii) The number of days of Flexible Long Parental Leave that the Eligible Employee takes must not be more than the number of flexible days notified to the Employer under sub-clause 59.6(e)(iii) (subject to any agreement under sub-clause 59.6(e)(iv)).
 - (iii) An Eligible Employee must take the Flexible Long Parental Leave as:
 - (A) a single continuous period of one or more days; or
 - (B) separate periods of one or more days each.
 - (iv) An Eligible Employee may take the Flexible Long Parental Leave whether or not they have taken unpaid Long Parental Leave under subclause 59.3(b).
 - (v) An Eligible Employee may take Flexible Long Parental Leave after taking one or more periods of unpaid Long Parental Leave under subclause 59.3(b) only if the total of those periods (disregarding any extension under sub-clause 59.11 or 59.12) is no longer than 12 months, less the employee's Notional Flexible Period, provided that the calculation is based on the assumption that:
 - (A) the Eligible Employee ordinarily works each day that is not a Saturday or Sunday; and

 - (1) the Child was born prematurely; or
 - (2) the Child developed a complication or contracted an illness during the child's period of gestation or at birth; or

(B) an Employee, whether before or after the birth of the Child, gives notice in accordance with subclause 59.6 of the taking of a period of unpaid parental leave (the original leave period) in relation to the Child, then the Employee may agree with their Employer that the Employee will not take unpaid parental leave for a period (the permitted work period) while the Child remains in hospital.

- (ii) If the Employee and Employer so agree, then the following rules have effect:
- (A) the Employee is taken to not be taking unpaid parental leave during the permitted work period;
 - (B) the permitted work period does not break the continuity of the original leave period; and
 - (C) the Employee is taken to have advised the Employer, for the purposes of subclause 59.6(b), of an end date for the original leave period that is the date on which that period would end if it were extended by a period equal to the permitted work period.
- (iii) The permitted work period must start after the birth of the Child.
- (iv) The permitted work period ends at the earliest of the following:
- (A) the time agreed by the Employer and Employee;
 - (B) the end of the day of the Child's first discharge from hospital after birth; or
 - (C) if the Child dies before being discharged, the end of the day the Child dies.
- (v) Only one period may be agreed to under subclause 59.3(h)(i) for which the Employee will not take unpaid parental leave in relation to the Child.
- (vi) The Employee must, if required by the Employer, give the Employer evidence (including without limitation, a medical certificate) that would satisfy a reasonable person of either or both of the following:
- (A) that subclause 59.3(h)(i)(A) applies in relation to the child;

(B) that the Employee is fit for work.

59.4 Short Parental Leave – Unpaid

- (a) This clause applies to an Eligible Employee who is a member of an Employee Couple.
- (b) An Eligible Employee who will not be the Primary Carer of a Child may take up to eight weeks' leave concurrently with any parental leave taken by the parent who will be the Primary Carer. Short Parental Leave may be taken in separate periods but, unless the Employer agrees, each period must not be shorter than two weeks.
- (c) The period of Short Parental Leave will be deducted from the period of Long Parental Leave to which the Eligible Employee is entitled under subclause 59.3(if applicable).

59.5 Paid Parental Leave

- (a) An Eligible Employee commencing parental leave is entitled to paid parental leave on the following basis:
 - (i) until 31 March 2021:
 - (A) a Primary Carer taking Long Parental Leave will be entitled to 10 weeks' paid parental leave, provided that the Long Parental Leave is taken contemporaneously with the birth or placement of the Child (subject to clause 59.3(h), in which case the Employee taking Long Parental Leave may agree with the Employer that the Employee will not take Long Parental Leave during the permitted work period while the Child remains hospitalised); and
 - (B) a non-Primary Carer taking Short Parental Leave will be entitled to one week's paid parental leave;
 - (ii) from 1 April 2021 onwards:
 - (A) a Primary Carer taking Long Parental Leave will be entitled to 14 weeks' paid parental leave, provided that the Long Parental Leave is taken contemporaneously with the birth or placement of the Child (subject to clause 59.3(h), in which case the Employee taking Long Parental Leave may agree with the Employer that the Employee will not take Long Parental Leave during the permitted work period while the Child remains hospitalised); and
 - (B) a non-Primary Carer taking Short Parental Leave will be entitled to two weeks' paid parental leave, save that an Eligible Employee is not entitled to both paid Long Parental Leave and paid Short Parental Leave in respect of the same birth or adoption event.

Paid parental leave is in addition to any relevant Commonwealth Government paid parental leave scheme (subject to the requirements of any applicable legislation)

- (b) The Employer and Eligible Employee may reach agreement as to how the paid parental leave under this Agreement is paid. For example, such leave may be paid in smaller amounts over a longer period, consecutively or concurrently with any relevant Commonwealth Government parental leave scheme (subject to the requirements of any applicable legislation) and may include a voluntary contribution to superannuation.
- (c) Such agreement must be in writing and signed by the parties. The Eligible Employee must nominate a preferred payment arrangement at least four weeks prior to the expected date of birth or date of placement of the Child. In the absence of agreement, such leave will be paid during the ordinary pay periods corresponding with the period of the leave.
- (d) Subject to clause 61.2(b)(ii) and 61.2(g) (in the case of long service leave), a variation to the payment of paid parental leave resulting in, for example, the paid leave being spread over more than 14 weeks does not affect the period of continuous service recognised. For example, an Employee taking 28 weeks at half pay will, for the purpose of calculating continuous service, have fourteen weeks of continuous service recognised. An Employee taking seven (7) weeks at double pay will have 14 weeks of continuous service recognised.
- (e) The paid parental leave prescribed by this clause will be concurrent with any relevant unpaid entitlement prescribed by the NES/this Agreement.

59.6 Notice and evidence requirements

- (a) Subject to clause 59.6(e) (Notice - Flexible Long Parental Leave), an Employee must give at least 10 weeks' written notice of the intention to take parental leave, including the proposed start and end dates. At this time, the Employee must also provide a statutory declaration stating:
 - (i) that the Employee will become either the Primary Carer or non-Primary Carer of the Child, as appropriate;
 - (ii) the particulars of any parental leave taken or proposed to be taken or applied for by the Employee's Spouse; and

- (b) Subject to clause 59.6(e) (Notice - Flexible Long Parental Leave), at least four weeks before the intended commencement of parental leave, the Employee must confirm in writing the intended start and end dates of the parental leave, or advise the Employer of any changes to the notice provided in subclause 59.6(a), unless it is not practicable to do so.
- (c) The Employer may require the Employee to provide evidence which would satisfy a reasonable person of:
 - (i) in the case of birth-related leave:
 - (A) the date of birth, or expected date of both, of the Child (including without limitation, a medical certificate or certificate from a registered midwife, stating the date of birth or expected date of birth); and
 - (B) if relevant, that their Child was stillborn (including without limitation, a certification by a medical practitioner or registered midwife of the child as having been delivered); or
 - (ii) in the case of adoption-related leave, the commencement of the placement (or expected day of placement) of the Child and that the Child will be under 16 years of age as at the day of placement or expected day of placement.
- (d) An Employee will not be in breach of this clause if failure to give the stipulated notice is occasioned by the birth of the Child or placement occurring earlier than the expected date or in other compelling circumstances. In these circumstances the notice and evidence requirements of this clause should be provided as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (e) Notice requirements - Flexible Long Parental Leave
 - (i) If an Employee wishes to take Flexible Long Parental Leave, the Employee must give notice to the Employer as follows:

- (2) if the Employee takes more than one period of unpaid Short Parental Leave, at the same time as the Employee gives notice in accordance with subclause 59.6(a) in relation to the first of those periods of leave; or
 - (B) otherwise - at least 10 weeks before starting the Flexible Long Parental Leave.
- (ii) If the Employer agrees, the notice may be given at a later time than that specified in subclause 59.6(e)(i).
- (iii) The notice under subclause 59.6(e)(i) must specify the total number of days (Flexible Days) of Flexible Long Parental Leave that the Employee intends to take in relation to the Child.
- (iv) If the Employer agrees, the Employee may:
 - (A) reduce the number of flexible days, including by reducing the number of flexible days to zero; or
 - (B) increase the number of flexible days, but not so as to increase the number of flexible days above 30.
- (v) The Employee must give the Employer written notice of a flexible day on which the Employee will take Flexible Long Parental Leave:
 - (A) at least 4 weeks before that day; or
 - (B) if that is not practicable, as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started).

 - (iii) commenced the period of Long Parental Leave; and
 - (iv) not taken a period of Flexible Long Parental Leave, the Eligible Employee may extend the period of unpaid parental leave (up to the Eligible Employee's available entitlement to Long Parental Leave) by giving their Employer notice in writing of the extension and specifying the new end date for the leave. This one-off extension is to be notified as soon as possible but no less than four weeks before the end date of the original leave period. Nothing in this clause detracts from the basic entitlement in subclause 59.3 (Long Parental Leave – Unpaid) or subclause 59.12 (Right to request an extension of period of unpaid parental leave beyond 12 months).

- (b) If the Employer and Eligible Employee agree, the Eligible Employee may further extend, or reduce the period of parental leave.

59.12 Right to request an extension of period of unpaid parental leave beyond 12 months

- (a) An Eligible Employee entitled to Long Parental Leave pursuant to the provisions of subclause 59.3 may request the Employer to allow the Eligible Employee to extend the period of Long Parental Leave by a further continuous period of up to 12 months immediately following the end of the available parental leave.

- (b) Request to be in writing

The request must be in writing and must be given to the Employer at least four weeks before the end of the available parental leave period.

- (c) Response to be in writing

The Employer must give the Eligible Employee a written response to the request stating whether the Employer grants or refuses the request. The response must be given as soon as practicable, and not later than 21 days, after the request is made.

- (d) Refusal only on reasonable business grounds

The Employer may only refuse the request on reasonable business grounds.

(e) Reasons for refusal to be specified

If the Employer refuses the request, the written response must include details of the reasons for the refusal.

(f) Reasonable opportunity to discuss

The Employer must not refuse the request unless the Employer has given the Eligible Employee a reasonable opportunity to discuss the request.

(g) Employee Couples

Where a member of an Employee Couple is requesting an extension to a period of Long Parental Leave in relation to a Child:

- (i) the request must specify any amount of Long Parental Leave that the other member of the Employee Couple has taken, or will have taken in relation to the Child before the extension starts;
- (ii) if the other member of the Employee Couple has given notice of an intention to take Flexible Long Parental Leave (in accordance with subclause 59.6(e)), the request must specify the number of flexible days that will not have been taken when the period of extended leave commences;
- (iii) the period of extension cannot exceed 12 months, less any period of Long Parental Leave (other than Flexible Long Parental Leave) that the other member of the Employee Couple has taken, or will have taken, in relation to the Child before the extension starts, as well as a period equal to the other member's Notional Flexible Period (if subparagraph 59.12(g)(iii) applies above); and
- (iv) the amount of Long Parental Leave to which the other member of the Employee Couple is entitled under subclause 59.3 in relation to the Child is reduced by the period of the extension.

(h) No extension beyond 24 months

An Eligible Employee is not entitled to extend the period of Long Parental Leave beyond 24 months after the date of birth or day of placement of the Child.

59.13 Parental leave and other entitlements

An Eligible Employee may use any accrued annual leave or long service leave entitlements concurrently with Long Parental Leave, save that taking that leave does not have the effect of extending the period of Long Parental Leave.

59.14 Transfer to a safe job

- (a) Where an Employee is pregnant and provides evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that she is fit for work but it is inadvisable for the Employee to continue in her present position for a stated period (the risk period) because of:

- (i) illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy, or
- (ii) hazards connected with the position,

the Employee must be transferred to an appropriate safe job if one is available for the risk period, with no other change to the Employee's terms and conditions of employment.

- (b) Paid no safe job leave

If:

- (i) subclause 59.14(a) applies to a pregnant Eligible Employee but there is no appropriate safe job available;
- (ii) the Eligible Employee is entitled to Long Parental Leave; and
- (iii) the Eligible Employee has complied with the notice of intended start and end dates of leave and evidence requirements under subclause 59.6 for taking Long Parental Leave, then the Eligible Employee is entitled to paid no safe job leave for the risk period.

- (c) If the Eligible Employee takes paid no safe job leave for the risk period, the Employer must pay the Eligible Employee at the Eligible Employee's base rate of pay for the Eligible Employee's ordinary hours of work in the risk period.
- (d) This entitlement to paid no safe job leave is in addition to any other leave entitlement the Eligible Employee may have.
- (e) If an Eligible Employee, during the six week period before the expected date of birth, is on paid no safe job leave, the Employer may request that the Eligible Employee provide a medical certificate within seven (7) days stating whether the Eligible Employee is fit for work.
- (f) If, the Eligible Employee has either:
 - (i) not complied with the request from the Employer under (e) above; or
 - (ii) provided a medical certificate stating that she is not fit for work, then the Eligible Employee is not entitled to no safe job leave and the Employer may require the Eligible Employee to take parental leave as soon as practicable.

(g) Unpaid no safe job leave

If:

- (i) subclause 59.14(a) applies to a pregnant Employee but there is no appropriate safe job available;
- (ii) the Employee will not be entitled to Long Parental Leave as at the expected date of birth; and
- (iii) the Employee has given the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the pregnancy if required by the Employer (which may include a requirement to provide a medical certificate),
- (iv) the Employee is entitled to unpaid no safe job leave for the risk period.

59.15 Returning to work after a period of parental leave

- (a) An Eligible Employee must confirm to the Employer that the Eligible Employee will return to work as scheduled after a period of Long Parental Leave at least four weeks prior to the end of the leave, or where that is not practicable, as soon as practicable.
- (b) An Eligible Employee will be entitled to return:
 - (i) unless subclause 59.15(b)(ii) or subclause 59.15(b)(iii) applies, to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave;
 - (ii) if the Eligible Employee was promoted or voluntarily transferred to a new position (other than to a safe job pursuant to subclause 59.14), to the new position;
 - (iii) if subclause 59.15(b)(ii) does not apply, and the Eligible Employee began working part-time because of the pregnancy of the Eligible Employee, or their Spouse, to the position held immediately before starting to work part-time.
- (c) Subclause 59.15(b) is not to result in the Eligible Employee being returned to the safe job to which the Eligible Employee was transferred under subclause 59.14. In such circumstances, the Eligible Employee will be entitled to return to the position held immediately before the transfer.
- (d) Where the relevant former position (per subclauses 59.15(b) and 59.15(c) above) no longer exists, an Eligible Employee is entitled to return to an available position for which the Eligible Employee is qualified and suited nearest in status and pay to that of their pre-parental leave position.

- (e) The Employer must not fail to re-engage an Eligible Employee because:
 - (i) the Eligible Employee or Eligible Employee's Spouse is pregnant; or
 - (ii) the Eligible Employee is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.
- (f) The rights of the Employer in relation to engagement and re-engagement of casual Employees are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.
- (g) Stillbirth or death of child – cancelling leave or returning to work
 - (i) In the event of a Stillbirth, or if a Child dies during the 24-month period starting on the child's date of birth, then an Eligible Employee who is entitled to a period of unpaid parental leave in relation to the Child may:
 - (A) before the period of leave starts, give their Employer written notice cancelling the leave; or
 - (B) if the period of leave has started, give their Employer written notice that the Employee wishes to return to work on a specified day (which must be at least 4 weeks after the date on which the Employer receives the notice).
 - (ii) Where notice under subclause 59.15(g)(i) is given, the Employee's entitlement to Long Parental Leave in relation to the Child ends:
 - (A) if the action is taken under subclause 59.15(g)(i)(A), immediately after the cancellation of the leave; or
 - (B) if the action is taken under subclause 59.15(g)(i)(B), immediately before the specified day.
 - (iii) This subclause 59.15(g) does not limit subclause 59.11(b) (dealing with the Employee reducing the period of unpaid parental leave with the agreement of the Employer).
- (h) Employee who ceases to have responsibility for care of Child
 - (i) This subclause applies to an Employee who has taken unpaid Long Parental Leave in relation to a Child if the Employee ceases to have any responsibility for the care of the Child for a reason other than because:
 - (A) of a Stillbirth; or

- (B) the Child dies during the 24-month period starting on the child's date of birth.
- (ii) The Employer may give the Employee written notice requiring the Employee to return to work on a specified day.
- (iii) The specified day:
 - (A) must be at least 4 weeks after the notice is given to the Employee; and
 - (B) if the leave is birth-related leave taken by a female Employee who has given birth, must not be earlier than 6 weeks after the date of birth of the Child.
- (iv) The Employee's entitlement to Long Parental Leave in relation to the Child ends immediately before the specified day.

59.16 Replacement Employees

- (a) A replacement Employee is an Employee specifically engaged or temporarily promoted or transferred, as a result of an Eligible Employee proceeding on parental leave.
- (b) Before the Employer engages a replacement Employee, the Employer must inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the Eligible Employee who is being replaced to return to their pre-parental leave position.

59.17 Communication during parental leave – organisational change

- (a) Where an Eligible Employee is on parental leave and the Employer proposes a change that will have a significant effect within the meaning of clause 16 (Consultation) of this Agreement on the Eligible Employee's pre-parental leave position, the Employer will comply with the requirements of clause 16 (Consultation) which include but are not limited to providing:
 - (i) information in accordance with subclause 16.4; and
 - (ii) an opportunity for discussions with the Eligible Employee and, where applicable, the Eligible Employee's representative in accordance with subclause 16.6.
- (b) The Eligible Employee will take reasonable steps to inform the Employer about any significant matter that arises whilst the Eligible Employee is taking parental leave that will affect the Eligible Employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the Eligible Employee intends to return to work and whether the Eligible Employee intends to request to return to work on a part-time basis.

- (c) The Eligible Employee will also notify the Employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the Employer's capacity to comply with subclause 59.17.

59.18 Keeping in touch days

- (a) This clause does not prevent an Eligible Employee from performing work for the Employer on a keeping in touch day while the Eligible Employee is taking Long Parental Leave. If the Eligible Employee does so, the performance of that work does not break the continuity of the period of Long Parental Leave.
- (b) Any day or part of a day on which the Eligible Employee performs work for the Employer during the period of leave is a keeping in touch day if:
 - (i) the purpose of performing the work is to enable the Eligible Employee to keep in touch with their employment in order to facilitate a return to that employment after the end of the period of leave;
 - (ii) both the Eligible Employee and Employer consent to the Eligible Employee performing work for the Employer on that day; and
 - (iii) the day is not within:
 - (A) if the Eligible Employee suggested or requested that they perform work for the Employer on that day - 14 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the Child to which the period of leave relates; or
 - (B) otherwise - 42 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the Child; and
 - (iv) the Eligible Employee has not already performed work for the Employer or another entity on ten days during the period of leave that were keeping in touch days, subject to (d)(ii) below.
- (c) The Employer must not exert undue influence or undue pressure on an Eligible Employee to consent to a keeping in touch day.
- (d) For the purposes of subclause 59.18(b)(iv) the following will be treated as two separate periods of unpaid parental leave (meaning that an Eligible Employee can work up to ten keeping in touch days during each period of leave):
 - (i) a period of Long Parental Leave taken during the Eligible Employee's available parental leave period under subclause 59.3 (Long Parental Leave – Unpaid) and 59.11 (Variation of period of unpaid parental leave (up to 12 months)); and

- (ii) an extension of the period of Long Parental Leave under subclause 59.12 (Right to request an extension of period of unpaid parental leave beyond 12 months),
- (e) Subclause 59.18(a) does not apply in relation to the Eligible Employee on and after the first day on which the Employee takes flexible unpaid parental leave in relation to the Child.

60. Breastfeeding

The Employer will provide reasonable paid break time for an Employee to express breast milk for her nursing child each time such Employee has need to express the milk, or breastfeed the child within the workplace, for one year after the child's birth.

60.2 Place to express or feed

The Employer will also provide a comfortable place, other than a bathroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from co-workers and the public, which may be used by an Employee to express breast milk or breastfeed a child in privacy.

Appropriate refrigeration will be available in proximity to the area referred to in this subclause 60.2 for breast milk storage. Responsibility for labelling, storage and use lies with the Employee.

61.2 Part 2 - Long service leave for Group A and Group B Employees

(a) Application of Part 2

This part (clause 61.2) applies to Group A Employees and Group B Employees only.

(i) Entitlement

Subject to clause 61.2(c) Employees are entitled to:

- (A) six months' long service leave with Pay on completion of fifteen years of Continuous Service; and
 - (B) thereafter an additional two months' long service leave with Pay on completion of each additional five years of Continuous Service.
- (ii) Subject to clause 61.2(c)(iii) below and 61.2(c)(iv), an entitlement under clause 61.2(a)(i) may be taken in advance on a pro rata basis if the Employee has accrued Continuous Service of at least:
- (A) 10 years as at the date on which this Agreement is approved by the Fair Work Commission; or
 - (B) from 1 July 2021, 9 years; or
 - (C) from 1 July 2022, 8 years; or

(b) Calculating Continuous Service

- (A) Continuous Service means continuous Service with the same Employer plus any prior Service of six months or more with one or more Institutions or Statutory Bodies.

- (B) Continuous Casual Employment means, for the purpose of clause 61.2(b)(ii), a period or periods of casual Service that are taken to be continuous, because one of the following applies:
- i. the period starting at the end of a particular instance of employment and ending at the start of another particular instance of employment did not exceed either the allowable period of absence, or 12 weeks (whichever is greater); or
 - ii. the Employee had been employed by an Employer on a regular and systematic basis and the Employee had a reasonable expectation of being re-engaged by the same Employer; or
 - iii. the gap between engagements was due to the terms of engagement of the casual Employee; or
 - iv. the gap between engagements was caused by seasonal factors; or
 - v. the Employee and Employer agreed, before the start of an absence, to treat the employment as continuous despite the absence.

(ii) Periods that count towards Continuous Service

Service or prior Service as a Group A Employee or Group B Employee during the following periods will be deemed to be continuous and will count as Continuous Service for the purpose of subclause (61.2(a)(i)):

- (A) an absence from work on any form of paid leave (e.g. annual leave, personal leave, long service leave and paid parental leave);
- (B) any interruption or ending of employment by the Employer if made with the intention of avoiding obligations in respect of long service leave or annual leave;
- (C) any absence on account of illness or injury arising out of or in the course of the employment for a period during which an Employee is receiving accident pay (see clause 33);

- (E) a period of absence on community service leave under the Act;
- (F) in the case of unpaid absences not otherwise referenced in this subclause, subject to clause 61.2(g):
 - i. any unpaid leave that is authorised in advance in writing by the Employer to count as service; or
 - ii. up to (but not including) 30 June 2020, any unpaid absence from work of not more than fourteen days in any year on account of illness or injury; or
 - iii. on and from 1 July 2020:
 - 1. any period of unpaid leave taken on account of illness or injury;
 - 2. a period of Parental Leave, including Parental Leave that is extended under clause 59; and
 - 3. the first 52 weeks of any other type of unpaid leave not specifically referenced in this subclause 61.2(b)(ii) and
 - iv. periods of Continuous Casual Employment with an Employer, Statutory Body or Institution, save that if long service leave was already taken or paid in lieu in respect of any such period, no further benefit to long service leave will arise in respect of that period.

(iii) Periods that do not break Continuous Service, but do not count towards Continuous Service

Unless otherwise agreed in writing in advance between the Employer and Employee, the following periods do not break Continuous Service but do not count towards an employee's Continuous Service for the purpose of calculating the employee's long service leave entitlement:

- (A) any authorised period of unpaid leave not referred to in sub-clause 61.2(b)(ii);
- (B) subject to the requirements of the Act, any interruption arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute;

- (C) any period between the engagement with one Institution or Statutory Body and another provided it is less than the allowable period of absence from employment;
- (D) the dismissal of an employee if the employee is re-employed by the same Employer within a period not exceeding two months from the date of such dismissal;
- (E) up to (but not including) the commencement date of this Agreement, any absence on account of injury arising out of or in the course of her/his employment not covered by a period in which an Employee is receiving accident make up pay or other paid leave;
- (F) any unpaid absence of not more than 24 months taken by a Group A Employee or Group B Employee for the sole purpose of undertaking a course of study related to nursing or midwifery where the written approval of the Employer is given; and
- (G) any absence from work of a Group A Employee or Group B Employee for a period not exceeding twelve months in respect of any pregnancy not covered by 61.2(b)(ii)(A) or (ii)(F).

(c) Taking of leave

(i) When leave is to be taken

Long service leave will be granted by the Employer within six months from the date of the entitlement arising under clause 61.2(a)(i) save that:

- (A) long service leave may be postponed to a mutually agreeable date;
- (B) if agreement cannot be reached:
 - i. for Group A Employees, the date will be determined by a member of the Fair Work Commission provided that such a determination will not require long service leave to commence before six months from the date of such determination; and
 - ii. for Group B Employees the date may be determined by the Employee save that the Employer may refuse the date nominated by an Employee on reasonable business grounds.

- (C) Employees of the Royal Women's Hospital or Royal Children's Hospital classified in a role described in Schedule 3D who:
 - i. become entitled to long service leave; and
 - ii. do not take such leave within two years,may otherwise be required to take an amount of leave to reduce their entitlement to no more than three (3) months, unless deferment of the leave has been approved in writing by the Employer; and
- (D) leave the subject of approval or grant under clause 61.2(c)(iii) shall be taken in accordance with the terms of the application or agreement.

(ii) How leave is to be taken

Long service leave may be taken in any number of periods of no less than one week (in the case of a Group A Employee) or one day (in the case of a Group B Employee) as agreed between the Employee and the Employer or as otherwise agreed as part of a transition to retirement.

(iii) Long service leave in advance

- (A) If an Employee has completed ten years' Continuous Service, an Employer may, by agreement with the Employee, grant long service leave in advance on a pro rata basis.
- (B) Supplementary to subclause 61.2(c)(iii)(A), and subject to subclause 61.2(c)(iii)(C):
 - i. if a Group A Employee requests to take long service leave on a pro rata basis under clause 61.2(c)(iii)(A), the Employer must grant the Employee's request to take long service leave as soon as practicable after receiving the request unless the Employer has reasonable business grounds for refusing the request; and/or
 - ii. for Group B Employees, an Employer may, by agreement with the Employee, grant long service leave in advance on a pro rata basis at any time.
- (C) If an Employee takes long service leave in advance and the Employee's employment ends before the entitlement to the leave would otherwise have accrued:

iii. the Employer may, from whatever amount is payable to the Employee upon termination, deduct the amount paid to the Employee for the leave in respect of which the Employee was not entitled, if:

1. in the case of a Group A Employee, the termination was for serious and wilful misconduct; or
2. in the case of a Group B Employee, the Employee had accrued less than 7 years' Continuous Service with the Employer as at the termination date; and
3. the relevant period of service will not count as a period in respect of which long service leave has already been taken (or paid in lieu) for the purpose of clause 61.2(b)(ii) above (Periods that count towards Continuous Service for Group A and Group B Employees).

(iv) Flexible taking of leave

An Employee may, subject to approval by the Employer, convert their long service leave entitlement in one of the following ways:

- (A) taking double the period of approved long service leave at half Pay; or
- (B) taking half of the leave accrued at double Pay for the period of approved leave.

Flexible taking of long service leave does not affect an Employee's period of continuous service recognised. For example, an employee taking 12 months of long service leave at half pay will, for the purpose of calculating continuous service, have six months of continuous service recognised.

(d) Payment on termination of employment

(i) Interpretation

For the purposes of this clause 61.2(d), termination of employment has its ordinary meaning, provided that:

- (A) it is taken to occur upon conversion from full-time or part-time employment to casual employment; and

- (B) it is not taken to occur at the cessation of each shift as a casual Employee.

(ii) Basic entitlement at termination of employment

Except where an election is made under clause 61.2(d)(iii) below, an Employee is entitled to payment in lieu of untaken long service leave upon termination of employment (calculated at one thirtieth of the period of Continuous Service) if, as at the termination date:

- (A) in the case of a Group A Employee:
 - i. the Employee has accrued at least fifteen years' Continuous Service with the Employer; or the Employee has an entitlement to pro rata long service leave under clause 61.2(c)(iii) and was not terminated for serious and wilful misconduct; or
- (B) in the case of a Group B Employee, the Employee has accrued at least 7 years' Continuous Service with the Employer.

(iii) Election for payment of entitlement or transfer of entitlement at termination

- (A) This subclause applies to the following Employees:
 - i. Group A Employees who have an entitlement to be paid pro rata long service leave under clause 61.2(c)(iii) (who therefore have less than fifteen years' accrued Continuous Service with an Employer); and
 - ii. Group B Employees who have at least seven years' accrued Continuous Service with an Employer.
- (B) An Employee to whom subclause 61.2(d)(iii)(A) applies who intends to be re-employed by another Institution or Statutory Body, may:
 - i. request in writing that payment for accrued long service leave be deferred until after the Employee's allowable period of absence (as defined above) has expired; and
 - ii. where the Employee notifies the initial Employer in writing within the allowable period of absence that the Employee has been employed by such an employer, and the re-employment meets the criteria set out in in subclause 61.2(d)(iii)(D)

below, the initial Employer is no longer required to make payment to the Employee in respect of such service.

- (C) Where the notice referred to at 61.2(d)(iii)ii. is not provided prior to or within the allowable period of absence the Employer will, upon the expiration of the allowable period of absence, make payment in lieu of long service leave as per subclause 61.2(d)(ii).
- (D) For the purposes of this subclause, re-employment by another Institution or Statutory Body means employment other than as a Group C Employee.

(iv) Payment in lieu of long service leave on the death of an Employee

Where an Employee dies while still in the employ of the Employer, payment in lieu of long service leave will be made to the Employee's personal representative in accordance with clause 61.2(d)(ii) above.

(v) No entitlement arising for periods of leave already taken

For the removal of doubt, where an Employee makes an election under clause 61.2(d)(iii) such that their previous Service is recognised by the new Employer, the Employee's previous Employer is no longer liable to make any payment in lieu of that employee's service.

(e) Public holidays and Accrued Days Off

See also clause 69 (Public Holidays) and 47 (Accrued Days Off).

Long service leave is inclusive of any public holiday or ADO occurring during the period when leave is taken.

(f) Proof of sufficient aggregate of service

The onus of proving a sufficient aggregate of service to support a claim for any long service leave entitlement will at all times rest upon the Employee concerned. A certificate in the following form will constitute acceptable proof:

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

This is to certify that [Name of Employee] has been employed by this institution/society/board for a period of [years/months/etc.] from [date] to [date].

(g) Transitional Arrangements for Parental Leave taken after 1 November 2018 and before the commencement date of this Agreement

Note 1: Unpaid Parental Leave taken prior to 1 November 2018 does not count as Continuous Service unless otherwise agreed, per clause 61.2(b)(iii)(F).

Note 2: Unpaid Parental Leave taken after the commencement date of this Agreement will constitute Continuous Service, per clause 61.2(b)(iii)(F).

- (i) As an exception to clause 61.2(b)(iii)(F), an Employee who took a period of unpaid Parental Leave that included any part of the period between 1 November 2018 and the commencement date of this agreement (inclusive) may make an application to the Employer to have that service recognised for Long Service Leave purposes. The Employer will approve the application and provide to the Employee an updated Certificate of Service reflecting the adjusted service arrangements.
- (ii) An Employee electing to make an application under 61.2(g)(i) must make the application to the Employer no later than 6 months of the following (whichever occurs last):
 - (A) the date on which this Agreement commences; or
 - (B) the date on which the Employee returns to work after the qualifying period of unpaid Parental Leave.
- (iii) This clause 61.2(g) shall also apply to an Employee in respect of a former Employer if the Employee took a qualifying unpaid period of Parental Leave under this clause while employed by that former Employer.

(h) Service before 30 December 1964

Notwithstanding clause 61.2(b)(ii) for the purpose of determining the entitlement of an Employee classified:

- (i) in Part 1 of Schedule 3D in Grades 1 -10; or
- (ii) in Part 2 of Schedule 3D in Grades 1 - 7, in respect of a period of employment beginning before 30 December 1964 and ending after the said date, the period of Service completed before 30 December 1964 will be reduced by one quarter.

61.3 Part 3 - Common conditions applicable to all Employees

(a) Payment for period of leave

- (i) Payment will be made in one of the following ways:
 - (A) in full advance when the Employee commences his/her leave;
 - (B) at the same time as payment would have been made if the Employee had remained on duty; or
 - (C) in any other way agreed between the Employer and the Employee.
- (ii) Where an Employee has been paid in advance, and an increase occurs in the ordinary time rate of pay during the period of long service leave taken, the Employee will be entitled to receive payment of the amount of any increase in pay at the completion of such leave.

(b) Records

The Employer will keep a long service leave record for each Employee, containing particulars of service, leave taken and payments made.

(c) Transfer of business

Where a Transfer of Business occurs, an Employee who worked with the old Employer and who continues in the service of the new Employer will be entitled to count their service with the old Employer as service with the new Employer for the purposes of this clause.

(d) Concurrent Service

- (i) Subject to subclause 61.3(d)(ii), concurrent service with two or more Employers remains separate and distinct.
- (ii) If a Group A or Group B Employee transfers from an Employer (the first Employer) to another employer (the new Employer) into an equivalent role, but retains concurrent employment with the first Employer as a casual Employee, then the Employee's service with the first Employer may transfer to the new Employer (despite the Employee remaining employed with the first Employer), if:

- (A) the Employee does not have an entitlement to take long service leave under clause 61.2(a)(i);
 - (B) the Employee has not already taken or been paid in lieu of long service leave in respect of the relevant period; and
 - (C) either:
 - i. the Employee notifies the first Employer of the transfer in accordance with sub-clause 61.2(d)(iii) (Election for payment of entitlement or transfer of entitlement at termination); or
 - ii. the second Employer otherwise confirms in writing to the first Employer that the period of service has been so recognised (for the removal of doubt, if the second Employer determines to recognise the Employee's service with the first Employer, it must provide written notification of its determination to the first Employer).
- (iii) If an Award-entitled Employee's long service leave entitlement is transferred in accordance with subclause 61.3(d)(ii):
- (A) the first Employer will no longer be liable for the service, and the long service leave liability for the service as an Award-entitled Employee with the first Employer will transfer to the new Employer;
 - (B) any casual service that occurs with the first Employer after the transfer referred to in (61.3(d)(iii)(A)) above will be considered separate and distinct service on and from the date on which the Employee commenced employment with the new Employer, provided that:
 - i. the qualifying period required to accrue an entitlement to long service leave with the first Employer does not reset (that is, the Employee's prior service with the first Employer can be counted when calculating any future entitlement to long service leave with the first Employer);
 - ii. no benefit to long service leave will arise with the first Employer in respect of the prior period of employment with the first Employer; and

- iii. the Employee's prior service with the first Employer is disregarded when calculating the Employee's normal weekly hours with the first Employer (e.g. for the purpose of sections 16 and 17 of the LSL Act).
- (iv) If the Employee is not entitled to transfer their service from the first Employer to the new Employer, or does not take the steps required in sub-clause 61.2(d)(iii) within the allowable period of absence, the first Employer will make payment in lieu of long service leave for the Continuous Service with the first Employer in accordance with clause 61.2(d)(ii) (Basic entitlement at termination of employment).

Example 1:

A Group A Employee is employed at the same time by Employer 1, and Employer 2.

The Group A Employee accrues service towards long service leave at each of Employer 1 and Employer 2.

If the Employee had been employed by Employer 1 for 11 years and Employer 2 for 6 years, the Employee can take LSL from Employer 1, but would need to continue working at Employer 2 until sufficient Continuous Service had accrued.

If the Employee resigned from both Employer 1 and Employer 2, and went to work for Employer 3, the Employee could:

- (a) transfer the 6 years' service with Employer 2 to Employer 3; and
- (b) have the accrued LSL from the 11 years' service with Employer 1 paid out in lieu on termination.

Example 2:

A Group B Employee has worked for Employer 1 for 6 years. The Employee commences employment with Employer 2 as a full-time Employee. To take up this opportunity, the Employee ceases permanent employment with Employer 1.

However, the Employee commences a casual employment relationship with Employer 1 within 12 weeks after resigning from their permanent position with Employer 1.

The Employee:

- (a) could transfer the 6 years' service with Employer 1 to Employer 2, and would be eligible to take LSL with Employer 2 once sufficient Continuous Service had accrued (taking into account the transferred service); and
- (b) could also take LSL on a pro rata basis with Employer 1 after sufficient Continuous Service had accrued, save that no entitlement would arise in respect of the prior 6 years' service that had been transferred to Employer 2.

(e) Savings

- (i) Clauses 61.2(d)(iii), 61.2(d)(v), 61.2(e), 61.2(g)(ii) and 61.3(d)(ii) shall not apply to a Group B Employee, unless the Industrial Division of the Magistrates Court provides an opinion that determines generally the rights of applicable Employees under this Agreement under sub-section 23(2) of the LSL Act that the long service leave entitlements provided by this Agreement are more favourable than those provided by the LSL Act.
- (ii) The Unions and VHIA must make an application to the Magistrates Court under section 24 of the LSL Act for an opinion referred to in section 61.3(e)(i) as soon as reasonably practicable after the Agreement has been approved by the Fair Work Commission.
- (iii) No Employee shall otherwise suffer any detriment as a result of the operation of this clause to their entitlement to long service leave existing immediately prior to the coming into force of this clause.

62. Leave to Engage in Voluntary Emergency Management Activities

- 62.1 An Employee who engages in a voluntary emergency management activity with a recognised emergency management body that requires the attendance of the Employee at a time when the Employee would otherwise be required to be at work is entitled to leave for:
- (a) time when the employee engages in the activity;
 - (a) reasonable travelling time associated with the activity; and
 - (b) reasonable rest time immediately following the activity.
- 62.2 The Employee must advise the Employer as soon as reasonably practicable if the Employee is requested to attend a voluntary emergency management activity and must advise the Employer of the expected or likely duration of the Employee's attendance. The Employee must provide a certificate of attendance or other evidence of attendance as reasonably requested by the Employer.
- 62.3 Recognised emergency management bodies include but are not limited to, the Country Fire Authority, Red Cross, State Emergency Service and St John Ambulance.
- 62.4 An Employee who is required to attain qualifications or to requalify to perform activities in an emergency management body must be granted leave with pay for the period of time required to fulfil the requirements of the training course pertaining to those qualifications, provided that such training can be undertaken without unduly affecting the operations of the Employer.

- 62.5 The leave under this clause will be paid up to 2 weeks, save that approval of paid leave is subject to the operational requirements of the Employer resulting from any emergency.
- 62.6 Nothing in this clause limits the ability of an Employee to be absent from employment for engaging in eligible community service activity in accordance with Division 8 of the Act.

Note: Under the Act, an employee who engages in an eligible community service activity is entitled to be absent from employment without pay (or in some circumstances, with pay). The relevant period consists of time engaged in the community service activity, reasonable travel time and reasonable rest time. Eligible community service activity means jury service, a voluntary emergency service management activity (such as voluntary work relating to an emergency or natural disaster when performed for a recognised emergency management body - as defined), or an activity prescribed from time to time. There are particular notice requirements so that the employer is advised of the forthcoming absence and how long it is expected to last. For jury service, there are special rules about pay rates, there is a limit of 10 days' paid leave and jury service does not apply to casual employees. Note also that any more generous State or Territory community service leave entitlements may nevertheless apply.

63. Jury Service Leave

- 63.1 An Employee required to attend for jury service will be reimbursed by the Employer an amount equal to the difference between:
- (a) the amount paid by the state of Victoria in respect of attendance for jury service; and
 - (b) the amount the Employee could reasonably expect to have received from the Employer as earnings for that period had the Employee not been performing jury service.
- 63.2 An Employee will notify the Employer as soon as possible of the date they are required to attend jury service. The Employee will give the Employer proof of attendance at the court, the duration of such attendance and the amount received for jury service.

64. Absences on Defence Leave

- 64.1 A Full Time or Part Time Employee absent on defence service will be reimbursed by the Employer an amount equal to the difference between:
- (a) the amount paid in respect of a period during which the Employee was absent on defence service; and

- (b) the amount the Employee could reasonably expect to have received from the Employer as earnings for that period had the Employee not been absent on defence service.

64.2 An Employee will notify the Employer as soon as possible of the date they require absence on defence service. The Employee will give the Employer proof that the absence relates to defence service, the duration of such absence and the amount received for the relevant defence service period.

64.3 In this clause 'absence on defence service' has the meaning contained in section 24A of the Defence Reserve Service (Protection) Act 2001 (Cth).

Example: The Employee is on Defence Service leave in for the duration of a particular pay period. Were the employee not on Defence Service leave in that pay period they would have worked on Sunday and Monday evening shift of each week of the pay period. The Employee is entitled to payment as though at work for each of the Sundays and Mondays evening shifts, less the amount of payment (not including reimbursements) from the Defence Service for the equivalent time of the Sundays and Mondays evening shifts.

65. Special Disaster Leave

65.1 Special disaster leave of up to 3 days per calendar year is payable where:

- (a) the Employee is a full time or part time employee;
- (b) Personal Leave is not available either because the Employee has exhausted the accrual or the circumstance does not qualify for Personal Leave; and
- (c) the Employee is unable to attend work due to a disaster (such as fire or flood) where:
 - (i) the Employee's residence is damaged or under imminent threat of major damage;
 - (ii) the lives or safety of their immediate family or household members are threatened; or
 - (iii) there is a formal closure, flooding or other unusual danger of the use of a road(s) which is the Employee's normal travel route to work and no alternative practicable travel route is available.
- (d) Special disaster leave is non-cumulative.

leave as a way of dealing with the accrual of excessive paid annual leave.

- (b) An Employee is deemed to have excessive leave accrual where the Employee has accrued:
 - (i) more than 8 weeks' paid annual leave; or
 - (ii) more than 10 weeks' paid annual leave for Employees who are entitled to the Additional Week's Annual Leave at sub-clause 53.4 of Section 1.
- (c) If an Employee has an excessive leave accrual, the Employer or the Employee may seek to confer with the other and genuinely try to reach agreement on how to reduce or eliminate the excessive leave accrual

66.2 Direction to take Annual Leave

- (a) Where agreement cannot be reached in accordance with 66.1(c), the Employer may direct the Employee to take some of that accrued annual leave provided that:
 - (i) the Employee has first been given a reasonable opportunity to submit a plan to reduce the leave to not less than six weeks within six months, subject to 66.2(ii) below;
 - (ii) the direction does not require the Employee to take a period of annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the direction is given;
 - (iii) the Employer will not unreasonably refuse to agree to a leave reduction plan which includes saving leave for an extended vacation within 18 months of the date of agreement to the leave reduction plan. The agreement is to be in writing and signed by both the Employer and the Employee;
 - (iv) in directing that the Employee take leave the Employee cannot be directed to reduce the accrued leave to less than six weeks;
 - (v) the period of annual leave is no less than one week; and
 - (vi) the direction is not inconsistent with any leave arrangement agreed by the Employer and Employee.

66.3 Excessive leave accruals: request by employee for leave

- (a) Where agreement cannot be reached in accordance with 66.1(c), the Employee may give a written notice to the Employer requesting to take one or more periods of annual leave.
- (b) However, an Employee may only give a notice to the Employer under clause 66.3(a) if:

- (i) the Employee has had an excessive leave accrual, as deemed by subclause 66.1(b), for more than 6 months at the time of giving the notice; and
 - (ii) the Employee has not been given a direction under clause 63.2 that, when any other paid annual leave arrangements are taken into account, would eliminate the Employee's excessive leave accrual.
- (c) A notice given by an Employee under clause 66.3(a) must not:
- (i) if granted, reduce the Employee's accrued leave to less than six weeks; or
 - (ii) provide for the Employee to take any period of paid annual leave of less than one week; or
 - (iii) provide for the Employee to take a period of paid annual leave beginning less than 8 weeks, or more than 12 months, after the notice is given; or
 - (iv) be with any leave arrangement agreed by the employer and the employee.
- (d) An employee is not entitled to request by a notice under clause 66.3(a) more than 4 weeks' paid annual leave (or 5 weeks' paid annual leave for a weekend worker) in any period of 12 months.

66.4 Disputes regarding excess annual leave

Without limiting the Dispute Resolution Procedure of the Agreement, either an Employee or Employer (or their representative/s) may refer a dispute about the following matters to the Commission:

- (a) a dispute about whether the Employer or employee has requested a meeting and genuinely tried to reach agreement;
- (b) a dispute about whether the Employer has unreasonably refused to agree to a request by the employee to take paid annual leave; and
- (c) a dispute about whether a direction to take leave complies with the clause.

8. Patient Services Assistant Structure

- 8.1 A Patient Services Assistant (PSA) is a multi-skilled Employee, the majority of whose work is ward based in an acute setting or community health centre. The work of PSAs involves the performance of duties across three or more functional areas of patient support services. PSAs are essentially ward based. PSAs will be encouraged to undertake training, which may include further training to enable them to obtain the certificate or equivalent for career development.
- 8.2 Notwithstanding subclause 8.1 above, PSAs are not precluded from undertaking non-ward functions and duties. Employees whose jobs involve casual or irregular ward based duties, or where their presence on a ward is a minor aspect of their role, are not performing PSA work.
- 8.3 The functional areas covered by PSAs are as follows:

Functions:	Duties:

8.5 The functions listed in subclause 8.3 above are intended to be comprehensive. The listed duties are intended to be indicative, not comprehensive.

8.6 In determining the number of functions to be completed by a PSA, it will not be necessary for a PSA to perform any particular number of duties identified as falling within each functional area.

8.7 In considering the duties that constitute a function, there must be the inclusion of sufficient duties relevant to the function such that the work in question is an integral and significant part of that function within the operations of the ward. While additional duties may be included, the inclusion of an additional duty or duties does not necessarily equate to an additional function, unless the extra duties constitute a regular part of a shift, or period of work.

8.8 Not all PSAs will be expected to perform all of the functions listed in subclause 8.3. PSAs at the Grade 2 level will perform four or more functions, and PSAs at the Grade 1 level will perform three functions.
