Introduction

Acknowledgement

St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne (SVHM) acknowledges that the traditional owners of the land, the people of the Kulin Nations, are the traditional custodians of this land. The organisation pays its respects to the Elders past and present, for they hold the memories, traditions, culture and hopes of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Australia.

History

The SVHM Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy 2016-2018 outlines SVHM’s strategy for the next three years in building on the work that was achieved through the successful implementation of the 2012-2015 Aboriginal Employment Plan. This plan was developed in conjunction with the Department of Health (DoH) as part of the Kareeta Yirramboi initiative which set a 1% target for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment within the Department and Health Services across Victoria. This 2016-2018 strategy was commissioned by the Department of Health and Human Services in 2016.

Funding through St Vincent’s Health Australia (SVHA) has allowed SVHM to create a dedicated Human Resources and Indigenous Program Specialist role to support the organisation to implement best practice initiatives in the attraction recruitment and retention of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. This includes developing recruitment and retention strategies, career pathways for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees and developing relationships with key external stakeholders.

The HR and Indigenous Program Specialist position sits within People and Corporate Support and this strategy is championed by the SVHM CEO. A dotted reporting line exists to the SVHA Group Manager, Indigenous Programs and has counterparts in Sydney and Brisbane.

Objective

The objective of the SVHM Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy is to increase employment participation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people at SVHM to 1% of the total workforce by the end of 2018 with a view to achieving a 3% workforce by the end of 2020. This target is based on head count and not effective full-time equivalent (EFT).

Through the process of increasing Aboriginal employment participation, greater understanding of cultural requirements will be achieved to develop the environment and systems for long-term Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander participation across the entire organisation.

Proposed Timeframe and Resources

The timeframe for achieving the 3% employment participation target under the Prime Minister and Cabinet is from 2015 to 2020.

To achieve the 1% 2018 target, this Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy intends to utilise both State and Federal funding sources to assist SVHM in minimising financial exposure while creating meaningful training and career opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people.
Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy 2016-18

Although funding is available for wage subsidies and training, SVHM will need to source additional resources for supervision, mentoring, cultural awareness training and project management. SVHM’s experience in the area of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment highlights that these components are crucial to any successful Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment Strategy.

Approach

This Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy is designed to provide practical steps to achieve the 1% workforce participation goal by 2018. The plan is also a response to the following policy initiatives:

1. In 2013 SVHA signed the Statement of Intent as part of Closing the Gap, Aboriginal Health Equality Summit. This agreement requires SVHA to work with the community to improve equity of access to health services and address social determinants of health. This Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy aims to address both of these areas.

2. This Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy is also a key component of the SVHA Reconciliation Action Plan (RAP) under the following areas:
   - Focus Area 1 Action 3: Partnerships
   - Focus Area 2: Respect
   - Focus Area 3 Action 1: Employment.

   These areas are covered in this Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy and will ensure SVHM meets its commitments to progress reconciliation with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community.

3. In 2015, SVHA joined the Prime Minister and Cabinet’s Employment Parity Initiative. This Initiative was established to increase the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment to 3% by 2020. SVHA has committed to increasing their Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce to 500 by 2020. This translates to approximately 180-200 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff at SVHM.

To ensure this Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy is balanced, an integrated implementation model has been adopted throughout. This model ensures the plan addresses four critical areas:

1. Resources – funding, people and infrastructure
2. Systems – procedure, preparation, ownership and measurement
3. Development – employment initiatives, training and investment
4. Engagement – partnerships, networks and strategic alliances

The objectives and outcomes of the plan are spread over the next three years (2016-2018) and will be linked to the SVHA RAP. It is important to remember when utilising this document that it is not a ‘static plan’. As opportunities arise and momentum grows through new initiatives and greater employee and partnership participation, this plan must reflect such change.
Environment

Organisational Profile

St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne is a part of St Vincent’s Health Australia that includes a range of public and private health services across Australia and is governed by Mary Aikenhead Ministries.

SVHM provides medical and surgical services, sub-acute care, aged care, correctional health, mental health services and a range of community and outreach services. With more than 5,700 staff and 880 beds, SVHM is Australia's largest non-government, not-for-profit health care provider.

SVHM works with collaborative partners, including the University of Melbourne, St Vincent’s Institute, O’Brien Institute, Bionics Institute, the University of Wollongong, Eastern Palliative Care and the Australian Catholic University, to deliver high quality treatment, teaching, education and research.

SVHM’s primary mechanism for improving services for the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community involves working in partnership with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community organisations. The SVHM Aboriginal Health Advisory Committee (AHAC) and a commitment by the hospital over many years has resulted in the prioritisation of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health and employment projects.

Review Process

Internal and External stakeholders were invited to attend a workshop and to engage in one on one consultation to determine the requirements and strategies outlined in the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy. One on one consultation with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community members and organisations were conducted as well as individual consultations with internal stakeholders.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community

A distinctive feature of SVHM is the organisation’s long association with the local Aboriginal community. The people of the Kulin Nations have lived, worked and looked after the land in the area now known as Melbourne since long before recorded European history.

The Fitzroy area, in which the main campus of SVHM sits, holds a particular significance to the local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community. Despite its changing face, Gertrude Street, Fitzroy, has in particular remained a place of historical significance for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people living in Melbourne and beyond. Many of the early institutions and organisations working to promote the rights of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people were founded and operated in this area, which became the social and political hub of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Melbourne.
Objectives

Strategies

As described above, SVHM must strive towards the achievement of 1% workforce participation of Aboriginal people by 2018 and continue to work to address the SVHA RAP and Statement of Intent commitments.

The diverse nature of SVHM provides a unique opportunity for prospective Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees; this is especially so given its geographical location and the important role the area has played in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history throughout Melbourne.

Following the introduction of the Equal Opportunity Act 2010 in August 2011, SVHM can advertise and reserve positions for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants without applying for anti-discrimination exemption from the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal (VCAT). This change in policy allows SVHM to target specific sectors of the organisation for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment.

Targets

SVHM currently employs 27 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff members, representing 0.43% of the total workforce of more than 5,700 people. To fulfil the 1% DHHS target, the organisation requires a total of 60 Aboriginal employees.

Importantly, the emphasis within this plan is on the introduction of new career pathways for Aboriginal employees that are sustainable and rewarding for both the individual and organisation.

Achievements in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment

At the beginning of 2012, SVHM employed a total of 15 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff. Since 2012, SVHM has successfully employed an additional 22 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff across multiple disciplines including Nursing, Allied Health, Social Work, and Support Services.

The total number of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander identified positions within SVHM has grown from 3 original positions to 14 over this 3 year period. We now have the following identified positions across the hospital:

- 1 Aboriginal Community Care Coordinator
- 1 Aboriginal Health Clinician
- 2 Support Service Assistants
- 5 Nursing and Allied Health Cadets
- 1 Manager of the Aboriginal Health Unit
- 1 HR & Indigenous Program Specialist
- 2 AHLO’s
- 1 Snr AHLO.
The current number of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Staff at SVHM has almost doubled and is now sitting at a total head count of 27. The number of applications received has also increased from an occasional application to an average of 3 per month over the 2015-2016 period.

SVHM has successfully delivered an introductory to cultural safety training to 39 staff through the VACCHO cultural safety training program. Cultural Safety Training is a priority across the hospital and interest continues to grow across the organisation.

Learnings: Enablers and Barriers

Enablers to our success in this space have been identified over the 2012-2015 period including:

- Having an Identified role within HR focused on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment
- Having key allies in HR to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment
- Victorian State Government Koolin Balit funding
- Prime Minister and Cabinet funding
- Partnerships, relationships and external stakeholder buy-in
- A demonstrated commitment to Aboriginal and Torres Strait employment at the SVHM & SVHA executive level
- Traineeship/Cadetship programs

Barriers that have been identified in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment through the 2012 to 2015 period include:

- Fixed term contracts & no ongoing funding opportunities
- Recruitment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with relevant qualifications
- Inability to correlate timing of applications and suitable vacancies
Implementation

Overall Employment Strategy Framework

This strategy recommends Executive Directors to actively engage with and consult the Aboriginal Employment Working Group (AEWG) and HR & Indigenous Program Specialist to develop their own department-specific Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Plan. These plans will aim to achieve the SVHA Employment Parity Initiative target of 3% Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment by 2020 and will be developed in line with this strategy.

Each Directorate will be encouraged, through these plans, to employ 1% of their workforce in all areas. If 1% of total workforce is less than 1 person, this will translate to 1 Aboriginal employee in that directorate. The graph below indicates growth needed per Directorate to achieve their 1% target by 2018.

Building strong partnerships with external stakeholders is an important part of the framework, particularly those who specialise in recruiting and/or training prospective Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff. Strong partnerships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander owned external stakeholders will strengthen our credibility within the local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community and therefore our ability to attract and retain staff.
The creation of ongoing traineeship roles within the organisation e.g. IT, Legal or Allied Health Assistants will help us gain momentum in areas without any Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander representation.

Creating a culturally safe work environment is essential. This will be achieved through facilitating cultural safety training across the organisation, establishing an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employee Network, the development and implementation of mentoring programs for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff and displaying Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags and artwork.

Creating targeted systems and processes will strengthen the ability to recruit and identify Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants when employment opportunities arise. This will include improving identification of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees in our HR systems through to targeted advertising for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander applicants when filling a vacancy.

Identifying, creating and encouraging supported career development pathways for our existing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff is also key to the success of this strategy. The sections detailed below are designed to work in conjunction with the employment initiatives outlined above. It is important to assess the actions in each of these strategies when implementing any part of the employment initiatives.

The attached appendix 1 outlines the established systems and processes that have been developed in consultation with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community. This appendix can be used as a suggested template to assist each directorate to create their own Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Plan, in consultation with the HR and Indigenous Program Specialist and AEWG. These plans will aim to facilitate actioning each of the initiatives outlined in the strategy below.
Planning and Governance

Crucial to the success of this plan’s implementation is the identification of key responsibilities for delivery of the strategies and actions. This includes guiding the implementation process and, secondly, monitoring and assessing the progress of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment initiatives. The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Foster ongoing commitment to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment at the executive level
- Foster ongoing commitment to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment at SVHM with external stakeholders
- Widen the engagement within the SVHM to foster greater knowledge of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Plan and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health outcomes throughout the organisation.
- Foster ongoing commitment for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment with internal stakeholders

Funding

Access to State and Federal funding is critical to the success of this plan. As a Victorian public hospital, SVHM relies on this funding to operate. Additional sources of funding available to assist with the implementation of this strategy could include; Foundation, PM&C, Koolin Balit Training Grants, external scholarships and bursaries. The success of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy requires dedicated long-term funding solutions. The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Determine supplementary funding methods for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Program
- Build strong ties between SVHM Foundation and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Plan
- Utilise SVHA Employment Parity Initiative funding
- Secure ongoing funding for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health and employment projects

Mentoring and Support

Mentoring is an essential part of the engagement process for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees. A system will be introduced to ensure each new Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employee is supported by a mentoring program for the life of their employment with SVHM. Importantly, this strategy will include selection and training of mentors to prepare them for this important task. All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff will be offered a connection to an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander mentor, but mentors can be, after receiving training, drawn from mainstream staff. This is an important opportunity for SVHM to learn from its Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees. Mentoring and advice to managers and staff is vital in ensuring a culturally safe environment.
The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Engage with a specialist mentoring agency to review organisational capacity, train mentors and facilitate the creation of a mentoring program
- Provide access to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff for culturally safe mentoring relationships
- Create an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employee Network
- Support Managers who employ Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff

Retention and Professional Development

Ongoing monitoring and support of all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees will ensure barriers and challenges are addressed before leading to attrition. A priority area in this strategy is developing career pathways within SVHM with the aim to contribute to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment globally, not just within the organisation.

These career pathways intend to increase Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment in qualified positions, leadership, management and executive roles. The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Provide systems and processes to ensure communication and support is maintained throughout the employment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees within the organisation.
- Assist in career development and upskilling of current Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Staff
- Ensure Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employees have support in professional development
- Create a supportive environment for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employees
- Support managers to positively participate in Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment

Identification of Employment Opportunities

As part of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy it is important to continue to identify opportunities within the organisation that will provide an environment for positive employment and participation outcomes and allow access to funding and resource streams. The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Increase capacity for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander representation in management roles
- Implement Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander traineeship positions in areas regularly recruiting staff
- Engage with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander high school students to participate in work experience at SVHM and consider careers in health
- Develop alternative pathways for selected recruitment into positions
Attraction and Recruitment

SVHM will continue to enhance its ability to attract and recruit Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people through innovative processes that explore a variety of recruitment and attraction methods. Successful recruitment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees is often achieved through the establishment of networks and partnerships. The Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment Strategy emphasises this approach. The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Assess current recruitment processes and identify barriers for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander job-seekers
- Increase attraction and recruitment efficiency through building strategic relationships
- Provide support for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander university and tafe students looking to enter a career in health or related field
- Marketing of SVHM job opportunities to target Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander audience
- Develop culturally aware selection and interview process
- Create media designed to improve Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment outcomes
- Develop a culturally considered welcome to the organisation

Internal Preparation/Building Cultural Safety

Internal preparation and training within each business unit assigned to welcoming new Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees will ensure expectations and standards are understood before commencement. As SVHM will be engaging some Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees who may be entering the workforce for the first time, this process will focus on strategies, training techniques and systems for hosting new employees. The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Demonstrate commitment to creating a culturally safe workforce
- Create welcoming environments for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees
- Build a strong internal communication strategy around Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture, health and employment
- Foster culturally safe management and supervision policies and procedures
- Acknowledge the unique requirements for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people to attend culturally significant events
Program Assessment and Reporting

This is not a ‘static plan’. Ongoing assessment and reporting of progress and outcomes to senior management and the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community via the Aboriginal Health Advisory Committee will allow for adjustments and improvements as the plan progresses. A system of consistent measuring will ensure quality improvement measures are implemented as the employment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employees becomes ingrained within SVHM culture over the coming years. The AEWG and the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist will work with each Directorate to:

- Embed reporting pathways with internal and external stakeholders
- Grow Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce in line with SVHA Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce targets
- Evaluate cultural safety across the organisation with standard national assessment tool
People and Committees

(1) HR & Indigenous Program Specialist - This is an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander identified role that sits in People and Corporate support. This role is responsible for the recruitment and retention of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff across SVHM.

(2) The Aboriginal Health Advisory Committee (AHAC) meets Quarterly and provides strategic advice and direction to SVHM in the area of Aboriginal Health. Members of the AHAC Committee include:

Co-chairs:

Director of Mission, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne
CEO, Victorian Aboriginal Health Service

Respected Elders:

Uncle Jim Berg
Aunty Joy Murphy

Committee Members:

CEO, Victorian Aboriginal Community Controlled Health Service

Quality Coordinator, Mission, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne
Mission Integration Manager, St Vincent’s Private Hospital Melbourne
Manager, Correctional Health Services, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne
Manager, Social Work Department, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne

(3) The Aboriginal Employment Working Group (AEWG) meets monthly and provides advice within SVHM regarding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Employment. Members of the AEWG include:
Chair:

Executive Director, People and Corporate Support, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne

Members:

HR & Indigenous Program Specialist, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne
Manager, Aboriginal Health Unit, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne
Senior Aboriginal Liaison Officer, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne
Manager, Nurse Education Centre, St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne

(4) The Aboriginal Health Unit is responsible for the following, in relation to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander health:

- Best practice for patient care;
- Staff cultural guidance;
- Research;
- Programs;
- Continuous quality improvement

The Aboriginal Health Unit members include:

Manager, Aboriginal Health Unit
Senior Aboriginal Liaison Officer
Aboriginal Hospital Liaison Officer
Aboriginal Hospital Liaison Officer/Koori Mental Health Liaison Officer
Aboriginal Health Care Coordinator
The below table represents the work that has been developed in conjunction with the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Community and sets out realistic achievable methods for converting this strategy into deliverable results. Each Directorate is encouraged to use this appendix as a framework to develop their plans in consultation with the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist and the AEWG.

References

(1) – Commitment to the promotion of Aboriginal employment initiatives through the SVHM Aboriginal Employment Plan and the SVHA Aboriginal Reconciliation Plan

(2) - This is an example of a question which will be available through the SVHA Behavioural Capability Interview Guide, question bank:

- SVHM is committed to the promotion of Aboriginal employment initiatives through the SVHM Aboriginal Employment Plan and the SVHA Aboriginal Reconciliation Plan. Can you describe how you will inspire others to pursue achievement of this shared commitment?

(3) – All SVHM staff are encouraged to contact the HR & Indigenous Program Specialist and/or the Aboriginal Health Unit when coordinating events to discuss the opportunity for attendance by external Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander stakeholders.

(4) - At the time of creation of this document, the committees that could potentially invite Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community members and organisations include:

- Aboriginal Health Advisory Committee
- Aboriginal Employment Working Group
- Consumer Advisory Committee
- Quality and Risk Committee

(5) – Supplementary funding for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment programs previously utilised from:

- DHHS- Koolin Balit
- PM&C – Indigenous Cadetship Support
- PM&C – Employment Parity Initiative

St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne has previously been involved with the following employment/career development programs utilising the above funding:

- Cadetship programs
  - SSAs
  - Nurses
  - Allied Health
- Training grants
  - Administration
  - Mentoring

(6) – The Employment Parity Initiative was established in March 2015 by the Prime Minister and Cabinet’s office to increase the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment to 3% by 2020. SVHA has committed to increasing their Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander workforce to 500 by 2020. This translates to approximately 180-200 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff at SVHM

(7) – All Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander staff have the option to opt in or out at any time throughout the course of their employment

(8) – Due to the current redevelopment of the St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne site, and lack of availability of a suitable long term space at present. Meeting the deadline for this target is subject to construction and development timelines and budgets.

(9) – Work with SVHA’s Group Manager Indigenous Programs and the SVHA People and Corporate Support team to develop generic packages for use across all sites which can be tailored to suit the local facility and its local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities.

(10) - St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne to tailor this program on St Vincent’s Private Hospital Melbourne work experience program.

(11) - St Vincent’s Hospital Melbourne promotes diversity and equal opportunity in employment and is committed to a more diverse workforce. If you are an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander applicant and require advice and support with the recruitment process, contact our Indigenous Program Specialist Aboriginalemployment.svhm@svha.org.au.

(12) - SVHA are currently developing a group policy regarding ceremonial/cultural leave based on best practice. SVHA aims for this policy to be comparable within public health and corporate peers.
Appendix 1

(13) – Communications Department to be involved with encouraging all departments to purchase Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander flags for their departments. Directorates can liaise with the SVHM Art Curator regarding available Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artwork.

(14) – This is target is subject to change as per Victorian DHHS Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment targets. This target has been set with the advice of a 2% target by 2020. Please note a 3% Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander employment target by 2020 as per Prime Minister and Cabinet and SVHA.

(15) – Approach Reconciliation Australia to be included 2016 and 2018 Reconciliation Impact Barometer surveys.
